

Group Life Insurance and postmarked within 31 days following the date of the terminating event or within 31 days of the date the employee received notice of loss of the group coverage and right to convert, whichever is later.

(4) When an agency fails to provide the notification described in paragraph (e)(2) of this section, or the employee fails for other reasons beyond his/her control to request conversion as described in paragraph (e)(3) of this section, he/she may request conversion of an individual policy by writing to the Office of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance. Such a request must be filed within six months after an employee becomes eligible to convert the standard optional insurance. That employee must show that he/she was not notified of the loss of coverage and the right to convert, and was not otherwise aware of it, or that he/she was unable, for cause beyond his/her control, to convert the standard optional insurance. The Office of Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance will determine if the employee is eligible to convert, and when the determination is affirmative, the employee may convert within 31 days of that determination.

(5) When an employee converts his/her standard optional insurance anytime after the group coverage has ended, the individual plan coverage is retroactive to the day following the day the group coverage ended. The employee must pay the premiums due for the retroactive period.

(6) An employee who fails to exercise his/her right to convert to an individual policy within 31 days after receiving notice of the right to convert or within 31 days of the terminating event, whichever is later, is deemed as having declined coverage unless OFEGLI determines the failure was for cause beyond his/her control as described in paragraph (e)(4) of this section.

(f) The 31-day extension of coverage provided under this subpart cannot be extended beyond 31 days, nor is it contingent upon timely issuance of notice of the right of conversion to an individual policy.

Subpart F—Annuitants and Compensationers

§ 871.601 Amount of insurance.

(a) The amount of standard optional life insurance continued during receipt of annuity or compensation reduces by 2 percent a month, effective at the beginning of the second calendar month after the date the insurance would otherwise have stopped or the insured's 65th birthday, whichever is later, until a maximum reduction of 75 percent is achieved.

(b) Judges retiring under 28 U.S.C. 371(a) and (b), 28 U.S.C. 372(a), and 26 U.S.C. 7447 are considered employees under the Federal Employees' Group Life Insurance law. Insurance for these judges continues without interruption or diminution upon retirement. The amount of standard optional insurance for a judge who elects to receive compensation in lieu of annuity will be computed in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section.

[51 FR 39363, Oct. 28, 1986]

§ 871.602 Termination of annuity or compensation.

If the annuity or compensation paid to an insured person is terminated or if the Department of Labor finds that an insured person receiving compensation is able to return to duty, standard optional life insurance held as an annuitant or compensationer stops, with no 31-day extension of coverage or right of conversion, on the date of that termination or finding.

§ 871.603 Waiver or suspension of annuity or compensation.

(a) Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, when annuity or compensation is waived or suspended, standard optional life insurance continues. When payment of the annuity or compensation is resumed, the paying official shall withhold the full cost of the insurance for the period of waiver or suspension during which the person is under age 65.

(b) If suspension of annuity or compensation is because of reemployment, the reemploying office shall withhold the full cost of the insurance during each pay period of reemployment.
